Mates Save Big D From Mark

By The Associated Press
Don Drysdale's own teammates kept him from closing in on a National League record Wednesday night. It's not likely that he'll complain. Until the ninth inning of the Dodgers' game with St. Louis, it looked as if Drysdale would win his fourth 1-0 game of the year. Carl Hubbell of the 1933 New York Giants holds the record with five. But then Ron Fairly drove in a run with a single in the ninth and ruined the whole thing. The Dodgers won 2-0 and Hubbell's record is safe for a little while longer. In other National League games Wednesday, Houston topped Cincinnati 1-0, Philadelphia crushed the New York Mets 8-0, San Francisco nipped Atlanta 2-1 and Pittsburgh destroyed Chicago 13-6. Dodgers managed only one hit off Bob Gibson, but it was a good one: Wes Parker's run-scoring double in the third. Drysdale stopped the Cards, who have now lost five of their last six games, on five hits. He hasn't allowed a run in his last 29 innings. Dave Giusti also had a date with the record book wrecked. He was working on a no-hitter when Pete Rose got the first Cincinnati hit off him with two out in the eighth inning. Giusti finished with a two-hitter. Rusty Staub drove in the only run with a single in the sixth. Richie Allen blasted two long two-run homers in the Phillies victory over the Mets as Woody Fryman hurled a three-hitter. Tony Gonzalez also homered for the Phils. The Giants moved into a

Rest of Quincy Set Rained Out

(COURIER NEWS SERVICE)

QUINCY, Ill. — Rain cut into the Midwest League schedule again Wednesday night, and placed Waterloo's Hawks in the position of having to play two doubleheaders in two nights, again.

The Hawks were to have met Quincy's Cubs here Wednesday night, but that was rained out. The game was rescheduled as part of a doubleheader Thursday, but rain forced that to be called off.

Waterloo is scheduled to play a doubleheader in Decatur Friday, making up a game rained out in Waterloo earlier in the season. However, Decatur also was rained out Wednesday night.

The Thursday games between Waterloo and Quincy will be rescheduled as parts of doubleheaders in Waterloo. They will be played June 28 and 29, ending the first half of the split-season.

Bernard Linn and Tom Stephenson were expected to be picked as the starting pitchers by Manager Rac Slider for the Hawks for the Friday Decatur doubleheader. Linn is 1-0 and Stephenson is 1-1 this season.

Packers' Kramer Top NFL Blocker

MENASHA, Wis. (AP) —

Jerry Kramer of Green Bay, who threw the key block in the Packers' conquest of Dallas in the National Football League championship game, was named the NFL's outstanding blocker Wednesday by the 1,000 Yard Club Foundation.

Forrest Gregg of the Packers, who won the honor a year ago, finished second in the balloting by sports writers in 15 league cities.

Ralph Neely of the Cowboys was third.

HITTER'S SMILES — Willie Stargell, left, and Maury Wills, right, smile broadly after the pair of Pittsburgh Pirates had a big day against the Chicago Cubs Wednesday. Stargell hit three homers, a double and a single as the Pirates romped 13-5, with Stargell batting in seven runs. Wills holds the ball which he hit for his 1,500th major league hit.

WAVERLY — Charles City's

track team took time out from tornado cleanup to successfully defend its Northeast Iowa Conference track championship at the new, Waverly-Shell Rock field here Wednesday.

The Comets won easily with 95½ points, and had one of the two records set in the meet. Decorah was second with 65½, Waverly third with 63 and Oelwein, the other tornado-ravaged city in the league, fourth at 48.

Both the Charles City and Oelwein schools have been closed since the disaster, and play the violin, not his vaulting

Comet Coach Blaine Thorson

said his team has only had light workouts since Monday. Three of Thorson's trackmen had their homers completely destroyed

last Wednesday, and four had

their homes partially blown apart.

At Oelwein, Coach Fred

Teufel's team has not been able to spare any cleanup time at all to work out. Also, the press

box at the Oelwein stadium is presently resting on the running

track, and the pads for the high jump and pole vault pits have departed the premises.

Pole vaulter Arvi Rebasso

of Decorah and hurdler Rich

Gauger of Charles City set the meet records. Rebasso vaulted

13-3/4 to break the old 12-0

standard, while Gauger won the

180 lows in :19.8, breaking the

old :19.9 mark set in 1953.

Rebasso, who owns a 13-6

vault this year, is enrolling at

Iowa on a full scholarship, said

Coach Jerry Thompson. But the scholarship is for his ability to play the violin, not his vaulting

potential.

The individual star of the

meet was Cresco's Dave Nau-

man, who personally accounted for 18 of his team's 29 points.

Nau-man started with a :22.3

victory in the 220, with Gauger

second, then coasted to a :52.5

win in the 440 to save himself

for the 880, which he won in 2:02.

Charles City swept the meet

despite winning only three individual first places and two relays.

Comet shot putter Dave Koch threw it 53-5 for one first and

teammate Dick LaCour tossed

this discus 140-3/4 for another,

while the Charles City two-mile

and mile relay teams earned

13-3/4 to break the old 12-0

standard, while Gauger won the

180 lows in :19.8, breaking the

old :19.9 mark set in 1953.

Rebasso, who owns a 13-6

HAWKS COULD AID CHAMPS

THE UNIVERSITY of Iowa's baseball team, in ninth place in the Big Ten, can have a say in the Big Ten championship race this weekend if the Hawkeyes decide they want to lend a hand to an old rival—the University of Minnesota.

Michigan State, currently tied for the loop lead with the Gophers at 12-2, invades Iowa City for a doubleheader Friday enroute to Minneapolis for what the Spartans, no doubt, regard as the crucial series of the season. It'll also be the last series of the season.

Michigan is at Minnesota Friday and Iowa Saturday, and, of course, what the Wolverines do with the Gophers also will have a bearing on the final standings and the importance of the final Michigan State-Minnesota pair.

Michigan State dropped its first two games of the season to Michigan, but since has won 12 in a row including six shut-outs.

Al Schuettle, the Hawkeye footballer, will pitch the first game of the MSU doubleheader at 2:30 p.m. Friday. Sometime over the weekend senior Tom Staack of Waterloo probably will make his final mound appearance for the Hawkeyes.

Hitting deficiencies have wrecked the Hawkeyes' loop hopes. The team average is .179. Despite that the Hawkeyes are 19-10 in all games. Michigan State is 30-7.

Luther Hit to Title

LUTHER WON the Iowa Conference baseball title for obvious reasons. Coach Rich Halverson's Norse hit .292 as a team to wipe out the old mark of .281 set by Buena Vista last year and his pitching staff compiled an 0.65 earned run average to better Upper Iowa's 1.15 of 1957.

Alex Rowell of Luther was the leading hitter at .500 while the top pitchers were Vic Olson with an 0.35 e.r.a. — 21 points

Grievances by ISU Negroes

AMES (IDPA) — Negro dormitories or fraternities. Since few ISU fraternities have admitted Negro members, a committee of the Iowa State University Athletic Council.

The Negroes, members of the ISU Black Students Organization, met this week with athletic council chairman William Thompson and members Harold Cowles, Al Packer, Robert Fellingner and John Mahlsede.

Thompson said the committee would submit the list of "grievances" to the full council when it meets June 5, and new council members and officers take office.

Neither athletic council members nor representatives of the Black Students Organization would comment on the Coach Glen Anderson, baseball grievances or the meeting. However, the Ames Tribune reported it has learned that housing for black athletes was a major issue on the list of demands presented to the athletic council committee.

The Negro athletes, reported Thursday morning that they asked that basketball Coach Cap Timm and trainer Bob Billings be fired "unless they have a change of attitude."

Anderson was unfair in choosing his starting lineup on a reportedly racial basis instead of on the basis of ability and rooming houses. At present, Anderson is accused of an unsympathetic attitude toward injured Negro athletes.

Bowens, Bertaina End Loss Streak

Bertaina and Sam Bowens made the same trip . . . and got little more than a change of uniform.

Wednesday night, the Senators shuffled Epstein off to Buffalo, then turned Bertaina and Bowens loose against the Chicago White Sox.

The result: A 2-0 victory that snapped Washington's losing streak at four games and took the Senators out of sole possession of the American League basement.

Bertaina, a stocky southpaw pitcher acquired from Baltimore in the Epstein deal last May, blanked the White Sox on two hits until the ninth inning, when he needed relief help from Dave Baldwin.

Bowens, purchased from the Orioles on a conditional basis last winter, took care of the Senators' attack by clouting a two-run sixth inning homer off Gary Peters.

Elsewhere, Baltimore nipped New York 4-3 on a two-run ninth inning homer by pinch hitter Don Buford, Minnesota edged Detroit 4-3 on Harmon Killebrew's run-scoring single in the eighth, Oakland blanked Cleveland 2-0 behind right-hander Jim Nash and Boston trimmed California 4-0 on Gary Bell's four-hitter.

Epstein, the 230-pound musclemen obtained by Washington after he refused to return to the Orioles' Rochester farm club last spring, was shipped back to the International League Wednesday night with a .099 batting average strapped to his broad shoulders.

Bowens, making his first start since last Sunday, stepped into Epstein's No. 5 spot in the batting order and broke up a scoreless duel between Bertaina and Peters with his second homer of the season.

Frank Howard, who stroked two singles and a double to boost his league-leading average to .348, was aboard in the sixth when Bowens' drive backed Chicago left fielder Tommy Davis against the left field fence.

Buford connected against reliever John Wyatt, who was making his first appearance for the Yankees, following a lead-
